BIOGRAPHY

Kirk Perucca recently retired as ordained minister of Covenant Presbyterian Church in Kansas City, Missouri. The congregation of Covenant is a racially and economically diverse congregation with a strong sense of ministry and mission in the community.

Kirk is very involved in his community and serves in a number of ways. Kirk serves Heartland Presbytery as the moderator of Mission and Social Justice Division, and is on the Committee on Representation and the Peacemaking Committee. He serves on the board of Swope Corridor Renaissance/Upper Room, a community organization supporting education. Kirk also serves on the Kansas State Advisory Board of the United States Civil Rights Commission.

Currently, Kirk is President of Kirk Perucca Associates, Inc. where he assists organizations to get the optimal value from a diverse workforce and to provide the highest quality services to a diverse client population. Kirk's entire career has focused on working to leverage the diversity of individuals and organizations. Kirk has done one-on-one coaching for individuals in organizations in New York City and across Kansas, Cornerstones of Care and CASA of Johnson County, and many other organizations.

Prior to his work at Kirk Perucca Associates, Inc. he served as the President/CEO of Project Equality. He served as the named Compliance Officer for the United States Department of Justice for Adam's Mark Hotels and Resorts.

Kirk traveled to Pakistan with the Presbyterian Education Board in 2015 and is looking forward to contributing as a board member of Friends of PEB.
