BIOGRAPHY

Caroline was born and raised in Kingstree, South Carolina and attended college at Furman University in Greenville, SC. There she majored in Early Childhood/Elementary Education. After graduation she moved to the Atlanta, Georgia area. Caroline worked for Gwinnett County Public Schools as a kindergarten, 1st grade, 2nd grade, and ESL teacher for almost 25 years. During that time, she earned a Master's in Early Childhood Education from the University of Georgia and a National Board Certification. She also obtained ESOL endorsement with the school system, as the student population became more diverse over the years. As a kindergarten teacher, she taught in England as an exchange teacher, and have been to Germany and Japan through educational grants.

While in Atlanta, Caroline worshipped at Peachtree Presbyterian Church, where she was a member for many years and was involved in Missions. She had the privilege of participating in several mission trips, including Habitat Global Village trips to Belfast, Northern Ireland in 1999 and to Kenya in 2003. In 2004, Cheryl Burke was instrumental in connecting her with PEB and she learned of the need to provide professional development for their teachers. That summer, Caroline had the privilege of being the team leader for Peachtree Presbyterian Church to take over American teachers who could share their craft with our Pakistani counterparts. They took teacher trainers over for the next few summers (2005, 2006, 2007, 2008, and 2010). It was one of the greatest blessings of her life to be a part of those teams and to cultivate friendships on the other side of the world.

Caroline's life moved from Georgia to Colorado when she got married in November of 2011. Her husband was living out there; so, she joined him in 2012 and gained 2 wonderful step-daughters. Caroline is thrilled to be connected with PEB once again, this time as a board member. She can't wait to see what the Lord has in store in this opportunity!
