A New Way to Stay Connected with PEB

We're making a small change to how we share updates from the Presbyterian Education Board (PEB), and we think you're going to like it!

Starting this fall, our School Highlight email will become a quarterly update, bringing you a deeper look at the stories, progress, and impact happening across PEB schools. In the meantime, you'll still hear from us regularly through our monthly newsletter, social media, and text updates. And when our quarterly School Highlight arrives, you can expect a meaningful look at what's happening in Pakistan.

Here's a sneak peek at what's coming in our next School Highlight:

- Graduation: celebrating students as they complete an important chapter of their education
- Kinnaird Academy: an update on the progress of the school expansion project
- New boundary walls: a look at the security improvements taking place across PEB schools
- Denationalization: an exciting update on PEB's efforts to reclaim schools and serve more students

We're excited to continue to show you the difference your support is making in the lives of students, teachers, and communities in Pakistan.

Thank you for staying connected with Friends of PEB!
